Wine of the week

White

Tenuta di Tavignano – Misco
Castelli di Jesi Classico Superiore – Italy
Verdicchio

The grapes of this wine come from the winery's most elegant vineyard called 'Misco'. The grapes are carefully grown and then hand-picked in several rounds. This in combination with gentle treatment gives a typically delicate wine, which represents the terroir. To say it in a few words, this is a wine with character.

The scents that jump out of the glass are those of ripe fruit, sweet almonds, star anise and acacia flowers. Followed by a mouthfeel which is soft and gentle with mineral hints.

This exciting Verdicchio pairs beautifully with our Soft-Shell Crab or the Cockerel from our 'From Land & Sea' menu.

Terroir Sense Fronteres – Negre
Montsant – Spain
Grenache

It all started with the quest of harnessing the unique minerality and soul of Montsant. This 'Negre' is the liquid voice of that quest.

As Terroir Sense Fronteres says themselves, this grenache is a fruit-driven message in a bottle that rewards those who choose to listen. Cherry and blackberry lead into herbal notes, followed by hints of spice and liquorice. Tannins well integrated like a woven web with a finish of lingering minerality.

To bring out the best of this beautiful wine, it is recommended to drink the wine alongside the 'Swiss Grand Cru' Veal Chop or the 'Ojo de Agua' Beef Fillet.
