White

2018 Weingut Oliver Zeter
Baer – QbA Pfalz, Germany
Sauvignon Blanc

This is a complex Sauvignon Blanc from one of Germany's most innovative producers. The "Bear" represents Oliver Zeter's flagship expression of the variety, grown on sandstone soils in the Pfalz and crafted with natural winemaking techniques.

Fermented spontaneously and aged for around 18 months on the lees in large oak barrels and concrete eggs, the wine develops remarkable depth and structure. On the nose, it offers layered aromas of ripe quince, pear, citrus peel, herbs, and subtle smoky notes, alongside hints of spice and dried herbs.

The palate is dense and mineral-driven, with firm acidity, salty nuances, and a touch of bitterness that adds grip and length. Complex and savory rather than overtly fruity, this wine shows a refined, food-friendly character and excellent aging potential.

Perfect with smoked poultry, grilled seafood, or vegetable dishes with depth and spice.

95.00 CHF/75 cl

Red

2021 Weingut Sven Fröhlich
AOC Graubünden, Switzerland
Pinot Noir

A refined and elegant Pinot Noir from the Bündner Herrschaft, crafted by up-and-coming Swiss winemaker Sven Fröhlich. Grown on old vines (30–45 years) in mineral-rich soils of schist and limestone in Jenins and Fläsch, this wine reflects its alpine terroir with clarity and finesse.

The Pinot Noir is vinified with minimal intervention: hand-harvested grapes, partial whole-cluster fermentation (2–20% depending on the vintage), and spontaneous fermentation using native yeasts. The wine matures in lightly used French oak barrels (from François Frères, Rousseau, and Chassin) without filtration, preserving its pure expression and layered complexity.

In the glass, it reveals bright red fruit (cherry, raspberry, strawberry), noble spice, floral notes, and a fine minerality.
